(57) CLAIM

The ornamental design for a vein reader, as shown and described.

DESCRIPTION

FIG. 1 is a front view of a vein reader;
FIG. 2 is a rear view of the vein reader;
FIG. 3 is a right side view of the vein reader;
FIG. 4 is a left side view of the vein reader;
FIG. 5 is a top view of the vein reader;
FIG. 6 is a bottom view of the vein reader;
FIG. 7 is a front perspective view of the vein reader;
FIG. 8 is a rear perspective view of the vein reader;
FIG. 9 is a cross-section end view taken along line A-A of FIG. 5; and,
FIG. 10 is a right-side view of the vein reader, showing the vein reader in an example use condition.
The broken lines illustrate environment and portions of the vein reader which form no part of the claimed design.
In an example use of the vein reader, a read sensor is provided on the top face that reads palm veins; and a connection is provided on the back face that is connected to, for example, a connector. The present article can be used together with a guide including a top end on which a hand is placed (see FIG. 10) or is used without the guide. The guide shown in FIG. 10 is not part of the present design.
