WET DUST COLLECTOR FOR USE IN A METAL WORKING FACILITY

Inventors: Arthur N. Perrault, Jr., 27814 Caraway Ln., Saugus, Calif. 91350; Terry L. Smith, 20759 Cottonwood Rd., Yorba Linda, Calif. 92687

Term: 14 Years

Appl. No.: 25,026

Filed: Jun. 27, 1994

U.S. Cl. D23/364

Field of Search D23/364, 365; 55/259

References Cited

U.S. PATENT DOCUMENTS
5,180,405 1/1993 Kuan 55/259

FOREIGN PATENT DOCUMENTS
2088743 6/1982 United Kingdom 55/259

Primary Examiner—Lisa P. Lichtenstein

Attorney, Agent, or Firm—Spensley Horn Jubas & Lubitz

CLAIM

The ornamental design for a wet dust collector for use in a metal working facility, as shown.

DESCRIPTION

FIG. 1 is a right front perspective view of a wet dust collector for use in a metal working facility showing our new design;

FIG. 2 is a right side view of the wet dust collector for use in a metal working facility of FIG. 1;

FIG. 3 is a left side view of the wet dust collector for use in a metal working facility of FIG. 1;

FIG. 4 is a back view of the wet dust collector for use in a metal working facility of FIG. 1;

FIG. 5 is a front view of the wet dust collector for use in a metal working facility of FIG. 1;

FIG. 6 is a top view of the wet dust collector for use in a metal working facility of FIG. 1;

FIG. 7 is a bottom view of the wet dust collector for use in a metal working facility of FIG. 1.