Des. 906

To all whom it may concern:

Be it known that J. Elias Young of Cincinnati in the County of Hamilton and State of Ohio, have invented or produced a new and original design for a Cooking Stove, and I hereby declare the accompanying drawing, (which are made a part of this specification) to form a full, clear, and exact delineation of the same:—

Fig. 1. being a perspective view of the stove. and

Fig. 2. a vertical longitudinal section of the front part thereof.

I claim as new and of my invention the ornamental design of Cooking Stove substantially as herein Exhibited.

In testimony of which Invention I hereto set my hand.
