(54) Title: DYNAMIC CONTROL RELAXING SYSTEMS AND METHODS

[Fig. 1]

(57) Abstract: The present invention generally relates to pelvic relaxing systems for providing various stimuli to various portions of a pelvic structure such as, e.g., a clitoris, G spot. This system includes a body member (20) which includes at least one input unit capable of receiving various user inputs and controls its stimulator unit for providing similar or different stimuli to similar or different portions of the pelvic structure without mandating an user to manually move the body member (20) during use. This invention also relates to various methods of providing stimuli without requiring the user to manually move the body member. This invention further relates to various processes for providing the above system and various members and/or units thereof.

INTERNATIONAL SEARCH REPORT

International application No.
PCT/KR 2010/000031

A. CLASSIFICATION OF SUBJECT MATTER

IPC⁸: A61H 19/00 (2006.01)

According to International Patent Classification (IPC) or to both national classification and IPC

B. FIELDS SEARCHED

Minimum documentation searched (classification system followed by classification symbols)

IPC⁸: A61H

Documentation searched other than minimum documentation to the extent that such documents are included in the fields searched

Electronic data base consulted during the international search (name of data base and, where practicable, search terms used) epodoc, x-full

C. DOCUMENTS CONSIDERED TO BE RELEVANT

Category*	Citation of document, with indication, where appropriate, of the relevant passages	Relevant to claim No.

☐ Further documents are listed in the continuation of Box C.☒ See patent family annex.

* Special categories of cited documents:

"A" document defining the general state of the art which is not considered to be of particular relevance

"E" earlier application or patent but published on or after the international filing date

"L" document which may throw doubts on priority claim(s) or which is cited to establish the publication date of another citation or other special reason (as specified)

"O" document referring to an oral disclosure, use, exhibition or other means

"P" document published prior to the international filing date but later than the priority date claimed

"T" later document published after the international filing date or priority date and not in conflict with the application but cited to understand the principle or theory underlying the invention

"X" document of particular relevance; the claimed invention cannot be considered novel or cannot be considered to involve an inventive step when the document is taken alone

"Y" document of particular relevance; the claimed invention cannot be considered to involve an inventive step when the document is combined with one or more other such documents, such combination being obvious to a person skilled in the art

"&" document member of the same patent family
