UNITED STATES PATENT OFFICE.

IKKO MATSUMOTO, OF INDIANAPOLIS, INDIANA.

DESIGN FOR A BADGE OR SIMILAR ARTICLE.

SPECIFICATION forming part of Design No. 34,124, dated February 26, 1901.
Application filed November 7, 1900. Serial No. 35,772. Term of patent 7 years.

To all whom it may concern:

Be it known that I, IKKO MATSUMOTO, a citizen of the United States, residing at Indianapolis, in the county of Marion and State of Indiana, have invented and produced a certain new and useful Design for a Badge or Similar Article, of which the following is a specification.

As shown in the drawings, the leading or material feature of my design is the representation of the head of a bull elk with head erect and mouth open in the act of bellowing. Only that much of the animal is represented as would be in front of a vertical plane passing back of the antlers and ears, as shown in Fig. 2. The neck and head of the elk in front of that plane are in natural relief. The ears and all of the members of both antlers, except two prongs b b on each side, lie back flat against the above-mentioned plane.

A represents the head of the elk; a a, the ears; B B, the antlers having the prongs b' b', 25 and b b prongs on each of the antlers, which extend forward in the manner, as is clearly shown in Fig. 2, to form a distinctive part of my design. On the neck D, which is carved to represent hair, are letters of the alphabet in rustic relief, as shown in Fig. 1, and which form a part of my design.

Having described my invention, what I claim as new, and desire to secure by Letters Patent, is—

The design for a badge or similar article, as herein shown and described.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal, at Indianapolis, Indiana, this 30th day of October, A. D. 1900.
