[57] CLAIM

The ornamental design for a cabinet, as shown and described.

DESCRIPTION

FIG. 1 is a perspective view taken from the front and left side of a cabinet embodying my new design, with the doors in the open position;

FIG. 2 is a front elevational view thereof;

FIG. 3 is a top plan view thereof;

FIG. 4 is a left side elevational view thereof taken along line 4-4 of FIG. 3, the right side being the mirror image of the left side shown;

FIG. 5 is a bottom plan view thereof;

FIG. 6 is a cross sectional view taken along line —6 of FIG. 2;

FIG. 7 is a perspective view thereof, similar to FIG. 1, except showing one of the doors partially closed;

FIG. 8 is a top view thereof similar to FIG. 3, except showing the doors completely closed;

FIG. 9 is a front elevational view of a second embodiment thereof, which is identical to the first except for placement of side shelves;

FIG. 10 is a perspective view taken from the front and left side of a third embodiment of my new design, of which the top, sides and bottom views are the same as the embodiment of FIG. 1;

FIG. 11 is a front elevational view of the embodiment of FIG. 10;

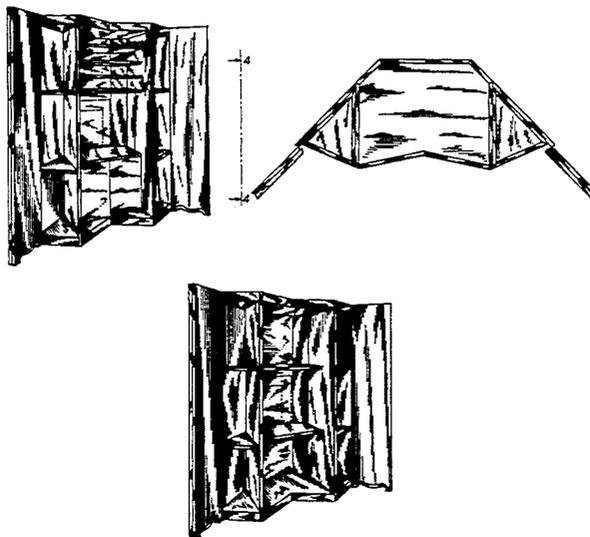

FIG. 12 is a front elevational view of a fourth embodiment thereof, which is identical to the embodiment of FIG. 10, except for the placement of side shelves;

FIG. 13 is a perspective view taken from the front and left side of a fifth embodiment of my new design, of which the top, sides and bottom views are the same as the embodiment of FIG. 1;

FIG. 14 is a front elevational view of the embodiment of FIG. 13; and,

FIG. 15 is a front elevational view of a sixth embodiment thereof, which is identical to the embodiment of FIG. 13 except for the placement of side shelves.

The broken line representations of the borders of a potential knock-out portion in FIGS. 1, 7, 10 and 13 and of a rectangular access hole in FIG. 2 are for the purpose of illustration only and form no part of the claimed design.
