(54) Title: METHOD FOR ENHANCING AND/OR IMPROVING PLANT GROWTH AND/OR YIELD OR MODIFYING
PLANT ARCHITECTURE

(57) Abstract: Described is a method for promoting or modifying plant growth and/or yield and/or architecture in plants comprising the increased expression of at least two cell cycle interacting proteins, in particular of a protein kinase, e.g. CDK, and a cyclin. Transgenic plants are provided obtainable by this method and displaying increased cell division rates and growth rates. In addition, harvestable parts and propagation material of the above-mentioned plant as well as the use of the provided cells, tissues and plants for the production of biomass, secondary metabolites or additives for plant culturing in plant culture.

* Special categories of cited documents :

"A" document defining the general state of the art which is not considered to be of particular relevance

"E" earlier document but published on or after the international filing date

"L" document which may throw doubts on priority claim(s) or which is cited to establish the publication date of another citation or other special reason (as specified)

"O" document referring to an oral disclosure, use, exhibition or other means

"P" document published prior to the international filing date but later than the priority date claimed

"T" later document published after the international filing date or priority date and not in conflict with the application but cited to understand the principle or theory underlying the invention

"X" document of particular relevance; the claimed invention cannot be considered novel or cannot be considered to involve an inventive step when the document is taken alone

"Y" document of particular relevance; the claimed invention cannot be considered to involve an inventive step when the document is combined with one or more other such documents, such combination being obvious to a person skilled in the art.
