1. The first part of the document is a letter from the author to the editor, dated 1st January 1950. The letter is written in a very formal and polite style, and is addressed to the Editor of the "Journal of the Royal Society of Medicine". The author, who is a young man, is writing to inform the editor that he has received a copy of the "Journal" and is pleased to have received it. He also mentions that he has read the "Journal" and is very interested in the contents. He then goes on to say that he has written a paper on the "History of the Royal Society of Medicine" and is hoping to publish it in the "Journal". He asks the editor if he would be interested in reading the paper and if he would be able to recommend it for publication. The letter ends with a polite closing and the author's name and address.
