(54) Title: CAULKING TOOL

(57) Abstract: The present invention relates to a caulking tool (1) comprising: an elongate body portion (10) having a longitudinal axis (A), a first opening (11) formed at a first inlet end (11'), the inlet end (11') further being configured for connection to a source of caulking material, a second opening (12) formed at a second outlet end (12'), and a tapering tubular portion (13) formed therebetween; a caulking vane component (20) comprising a caulking vane (20') connected to or connectable to said elongate body portion (10), wherein said vane (20') comprises a substantially straight front edge (21), and two side edges (22, 23) configured to extend from the outlet (12) to the straight front edge (21); wherein said vane (20) defines a plane (P), and is devoid of openings or holes, wherein said plane (P) forms an angle (V1) of 0-5° relative to said longitudinal axis (A) of the elongate body portion (10); wherein said plane (P) of said vane (20) is configured to be substantially flush with the outlet (12); wherein said straight front edge (21) extend to two sides of said outlet (12), and where said straight front edge (21) forms a second angle (V2) relative to said longitudinal axis (A) in the interval of 95-110°.

* Special categories of cited documents :

"A" document defining the general state of the art which is not considered to be of particular relevance

"E" earlier application or patent but published on or after the international filing date

"L" document which may throw doubts on priority claim(s) or which is cited to establish the publication date of another citation or other special reason (as specified)

"O" document referring to an oral disclosure, use, exhibition or other means

"P" document published prior to the international filing date but later than the priority date claimed

"T" later document published after the international filing date or priority date and not in conflict with the application but cited to understand the principle or theory underlying the invention

"X" document of particular relevance; the claimed invention cannot be considered novel or cannot be considered to involve an inventive step when the document is taken alone

"Y" document of particular relevance; the claimed invention cannot be considered to involve an inventive step when the document is combined with one or more other such documents, such combination being obvious to a person skilled in the art

"&" document member of the same patent family
