UNITED STATES PATENT OFFICE

166,333

RADIO RECEIVER

Richard Montmeat, Syracuse, N. Y., assignor to General Electric Company, a corporation of
New York

Application September 29, 1951, Serial No. 16,782

Term of patent 14 years

(Cl. D56—4)

To all whom it may concern:

Be it known that I, Richard Montmeat, a citizen of the United States, residing at Syracuse, State of New York, have invented a new, original, and ornamental Design for a Radio Receiver, of which the following is a specification, reference being had to the accompanying drawing, forming a part thereof.

Fig. 1 is a perspective view of a radio receiver embodying my new design with the dial cover in a closed position.

Fig. 2 is a top view of the radio receiver of Fig. 1 with the dial cover closed.

Fig. 3 is an end view of the radio receiver of Fig. 1.

Fig. 4 is a fragmentary front elevational view thereof with the dial cover in open position and with portions omitted for convenience of illustration.

The right end of the receiver as viewed in Fig. 1 is like the left end shown in Fig. 3, the receiver being laterally symmetrical as viewed from the front.

I claim:

The ornamental design for a radio receiver, substantially as shown and described.

RICHARD MONTMEAT.
