CRAVAT OR SIMILAR ARTICLE

Joseph Melville, Long Beach, N. Y.

Application June 8, 1951, Serial No. 15,462

Term of patent 7 years

(Cl. D3—16)

To all whom it may concern:

Be it known that I, Joseph Melville, a citizen of the United States of America, residing in Long Beach, county of Nassau, and State of New York, have invented a new, original, and ornamental Design for a Cravat or Similar Article, of which the following is a specification, reference being had to the accompanying drawing, forming part thereof, wherein,

The figure on the drawing is a perspective view of the outer faces of a cravat showing my new design.

The rear of the cravat is substantially plain in appearance.

The point shown on the neckband of the cravat is the result of the formation of the cravat from two parts. The reverse side of the cravat is formed with a similar point, the remainder of the reverse side being substantially plain in appearance.

I claim:

The ornamental design for a cravat or similar article, substantially as shown and described.

JOSEPH MELVILLE.
