(54) Title: WAGERING GAME WITH OUTCOME BASED ON CUMMUNITY AND INDIVIDUAL RANDOM EVENTS

Fig.1A

(57) Abstract: A method of conducting a wagering game on a gaming machine comprises selecting a plurality of playable elements from a set of playable elements. The method further comprises displaying an individual outcome having first elements randomly selected from a set of individual elements. The set of individual elements correspond to the set of playable elements. The method further includes displaying a community outcome having second elements randomly selected from a set of community elements. The set of community elements correspond to the set of playable elements. An award is achieved in response to the plurality of playable elements matching the randomly selected first and second elements.
