(54) Title: TRANSPORTABLE MODULAR SYSTEM FOR COVERED ISOLATION OF ASSETS

FIG. 51

BUILDING STRONG

(57) Abstract: A human portable, modular double joist assembly (285) comprising an upper bar joist, a lower bar joist and two roof frames; said (i) a lower bar joist (283) having two opposed ends and comprising a plurality of lower bar joist middle sections (283M) connected to each other in an end-to-end configuration to form a center section of said lower bar joist having two opposed ends, and having two lower bar joist end sections (283E), each of said lower bar joist end sections having a distal end (283E-D) and a proximal end (283E-P), the proximal ends of each lower bar joist end section being attached to an opposed end of said center section of said lower bar joist; wherein the distal ends of said two lower bar joist end sections also define the opposed ends of said lower bar joist; and wherein said two opposed ends of said lower bar joist are each in contact with a lower contact portion (281L) of one of the two roof frames (281), (ii) said roof frames having said lower contact portion and an upper contact portion (281U), said (iii) an upper bar joist (282) having two opposed ends and comprising a plurality of upper bar joist middle sections (282M) connected to each other in an end-to-end configuration to form a center section of said upper bar joist having two opposed ends, and having two upper bar joist end sections (282E), each of said upper bar joist end sections having a distal end (282E-D) and a proximal end (282E-P).

* Special categories of cited documents:

"A" document defining the general state of the art which is not considered to be of particular relevance

"E" earlier document but published on or after the international filing date

"L" document which may throw doubts on priority claim(s) or which is cited to establish the publication date of another citation or other special reason (as specified)

"O" document referring to an oral disclosure, use, exhibition or other means

"P" document published prior to the international filing date but later than the priority date claimed

"T" later document published after the international filing date or priority date and not in conflict with the application but cited to understand the principle or theory underlying the invention

"X" document of particular relevance: the claimed invention cannot be considered novel or cannot be considered to involve an inventive step when the document is taken alone

"Y" document of particular relevance: the claimed invention cannot be considered to involve an inventive step when the document is combined with one or more other such documents, such combination being obvious to a person skilled in the art

"&" document member of the same patent family
