MOTION MODULATION DEVICE FOR A HAND

Inventor: E. Gerald Slautterback, Coral Springs, FL (US)

Assignee: Fla Orthopedics, Inc., Miramar, FL (US)

Term: 14 Years

Appl. No.: 29/140,496
Filed: Apr. 19, 2001

LOC (7) Cl. ............................................. 24-04
U.S. Cl. .............................................. D24/190
Field of Search .................................. D24/190, 602/21, 602/20, 22; 2/159, 161.1, 161.2, 161.5, 161.6

References Cited
U.S. PATENT DOCUMENTS
4,850,341 A * 7/1989 Fabry et al. ................... 601/40

5,214,799 A * 6/1993 Fabry ............................ 2/161.6
5,826,276 A * 10/1998 Garceau-Verbeek ............. 2/161.1
6,006,751 A * 12/1999 Spitzer ......................... 128/878
D438,625 S * 3/2001 Kellogg ......................... D24/190
6,199,211 B1 * 3/2001 Franzolino .................. 2/161.6

* cited by examiner

Primary Examiner—Stella Reid
Attorney, Agent, or Firm—Dougherty & Clements LLP

CLAIM

The ornamental design for a motion modulation device for a hand, as shown and described.

DESCRIPTION

FIG. 1 is a perspective view of rear exterior side of the motion modulation device; and,
FIG. 2 is a perspective view of the exterior of the palm side thereof.
The broken lines in both Figures represent top stitching.

1 Claim, 2 Drawing Sheets