UNITED STATES PATENT OFFICE.

THOMAS C. WOOD, OF WASHINGTON, DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA.

GAME DEVICE.

983,592.

Specification of Letters Patent.

Patented Feb. 7, 1911.

Application filed June 8, 1910. Serial No. 565,714.

To all whom it may concern:

Be it known that I, THOMAS C. WOOD, citi- | on the body wall c or may be removable in the discretion of the manufacturer of the form or relative arrangement of parts disclosed, but that modifications may be made therein without departing from the spirit thereof.

5 Having described my invention, what I claim and desire to secure by Letters-Patent, is:

10 In a game device, a body comprising a bottom inclined downward and outward from an apex, an annular wall surrounding said bottom and provided with radially-disposed apertures, radial partition walls arranged above the bottom and grouped about the apex thereof and provided with divergent outer portions, and an annular series of 15 compartments surrounding the said annular

wall and communicating with the apertures therein; a top arranged on the said annular wall of the body and having an aperture disposed above the said apex; columns, of different heights, fixed on said top; and an open trough, of helical form, fixed on said columns and having its lower portion connected with the said aperture of the top. 20

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand in presence of two subscribing witnesses. 25

THOMAS C. WOOD.

Witnesses:
