DESIGN.

A. K. MAY.
CARPET.

No. 27,053.

Patented May 11, 1897.

[Design drawing with labeled parts: a, b, c, d, e]
To all whom it may concern:

Be it known that I, ANNA K. MAY, a citizen of the United States, residing at the city of Philadelphia, in the county of Philadelphia and State of Pennsylvania, have invented and produced a new and original Design for a Carpet or other Fabric, of which the following is a specification, reference being had more particularly to the accompanying drawing, illustrating the same and forming part hereof.

The leading feature of my design comprises a Morris pattern of conventionalized flag flower, leaf, and other floral forms arranged so as to well cover the ground.

In the drawing, \( a \) is the body, \( b \) the border, and \( a' \) the complete carpet.

\( d \) are conventionalized flag-flowers.

\( e \) are other conventionalized floral forms, of which \( e' \) are bleeding hearts.

The design of my invention will be best understood by reference to the accompanying drawing, and it may be expressed in different colors or combinations of colors and applied to velvet, Wilton, Brussels, in-grain, and other carpets.

What I claim as my invention, and desire to secure by Letters Patent, is—

1. In a design for a carpet, the body \( a' \), substantially as shown.

2. In a design for a carpet, the border \( b \), substantially as shown.

3. The design for a carpet consisting of the body \( a' \), and border \( b \), substantially as shown.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto signed my name.

ANNA K. MAY.

In presence of—

CHAS. J. SCHARFER,
WINFIELD S. H. KNOPF.
