(54) Title: METHOD OF DETERMINING THE CARRY-OVER OF AN ANALYTE (57) Abstract The present invention relates to a method of determining the carry-over of an analyte in an assay comprising consecutive transfer of analyte-comprising samples by the same transferring means. According to the invention, a model analyte is used to determine a model carry-over, said model carry-over being representative for many of the parameters determining the carry-over of a particular assay. To determine the carry-over for that particular assay, the model carry-over is corrected with a correction factor C, provided by the manufacturer of the assay.

A. CLASSIFICATION OF SUBJECT MATTER

IPC 7 G01N33/487

According to International Patent Classification (IPC) or to both national classification and IPC

B. FIELDS SEARCHED

Minimum documentation searched (classification system followed by classification symbols)

IPC 7 G01N

Documentation searched other than minimum documentation to the extent that such documents are included in the fields searched

Electronic data base consulted during the international search (name of data base and, where practical, search terms used)

C. DOCUMENTS CONSIDERED TO BE RELEVANT

Category *	Citation of document, with indication, where appropriate, of the relevant passages	Relevant to claim No.

* Special categories of cited documents:

- "A" document defining the general state of the art which is not considered to be of particular relevance
- "E" earlier document but published on or after the international filing date
- "L" document which may throw doubts on priority claim(s) or which is cited to establish the publication date of another citation or other special reason (as specified)
- "O" document referring to an oral disclosure, use, exhibition or other means
- "P" document published prior to the international filing date but later than the priority date claimed

- "T" later document published after the international filing date or priority date and not in conflict with the application but cited to understand the principle or theory underlying the invention
- "X" document of particular relevance; the claimed invention cannot be considered novel or cannot be considered to involve an inventive step when the document is taken alone
- "Y" document of particular relevance; the claimed invention cannot be considered to involve an inventive step when the document is combined with one or more other such documents, such combination being obvious to a person skilled in the art
- "&" document member of the same patent family
