DESIGN FOR A TIE HOLDER

George M. Munk, Springdale, Conn.

Application December 20, 1941, Serial No. 104,763

Term of patent 7 years

To all whom it may concern:

Be it known that I, George M. Munk, a citizen of the United States, residing at Springdale, in the county of Fairfield and State of Connecticut, have invented a new, original, and ornamental Design for a Tie Holder, of which the following is a specification, reference being had to the accompanying drawing, forming part thereof.

In the drawing the figure is a perspective view of a tie holder, showing my new design, one of the tie holder arm elements being shown in closed position and the other tie holder arm being shown in opened position. The shading on the inlaid portions of the tie holder indicates contrasting colors.

I claim:

The ornamental design for a tie holder, substantially as shown and described.

GEORGE M. MUNK.
