(54) Title: METHOD AND SYSTEM FOR OPERATING A CONTENT MANAGEMENT SYSTEM

(57) Abstract: The present invention is directed to a content management system for receiving, editing, and distributing data across a network. The method includes accessing (935) the data stored in a database (DB-1), presenting (940) the data for inspection, and assigning (945) the data to at least one target location for distribution. Another embodiment of the present invention is a user interface operating on a computing device (340) for editing data in the content management system.
