(54) Title: METHOD AND SYSTEM FOR MANIPULATION OF GRAPHICS INFORMATION

(57) Abstract: Manipulation of graphics information according to a computing device on which graphics information is to be displayed is performed. The capabilities of the computing device are used to form a set of constraints for the graphics information obtained from a content provider. These constraints take into consideration such factors as display characteristics of the computing device, processing power, available memory and communication capacity. The graphics information is manipulated to conform to the set of constraints, resulting in graphics information that can be displayed and interpreted by the computing device.
