COVER FOR A FOOD STORAGE DISH
OR THE LIKE

Theodore K. Imhoff, Painted Post, N.Y., assignor to Corning Glass Works, Corning, N.Y., a corporation of
New York

Filed Apr. 7, 1965, Ser. No. 84,661

Term of patent 14 years

(C. D44—1)

FIGURE 1 is a top plan view of a cover for a food
storage dish or the like embodying my new design;
FIGURE 2 is a side elevational view;
FIGURE 3 is a cross-sectional view in elevation taken along line III—III of FIGURE 1; FIGURE 4 is an enlarged fragmental view of an edge portion of FIGURE 3; and FIGURE 5 is a bottom plan view.

My design for a cover for a food storage dish or the like is characterized by a continuous top ridge of rounded-square configuration smoothly flowing into a flat central recessed portion, and a complementary rounded-square outer periphery concentric with said ridge and having a pair of opposed recesses cut in flattened sidewall portions of the rounded-square periphery, in the arrangement and having the configurations substantially as shown.

I claim:
The ornamental design for a cover for a food storage
dish or the like, as shown and described.
