To all whom it may concern:

Be it known that I, Forrest M. Keeton, a citizen of the United States, residing at Detroit, in the county of Wayne and State of Michigan, have invented a new and original Design for Vehicle-Wheel Chocks, of which the following is a specification, reference being had to the accompanying drawing, forming part thereof.

The figure of the drawing is a perspective of my vehicle wheel chock.

I claim:

The design for a vehicle wheel chock as shown in the figure of the drawing.

Forrest M. Keeton.
