(54) Title: SYNCHRONIZATION OF CENTRALIZED SYSTEMS AND MEDICAL DEVICES

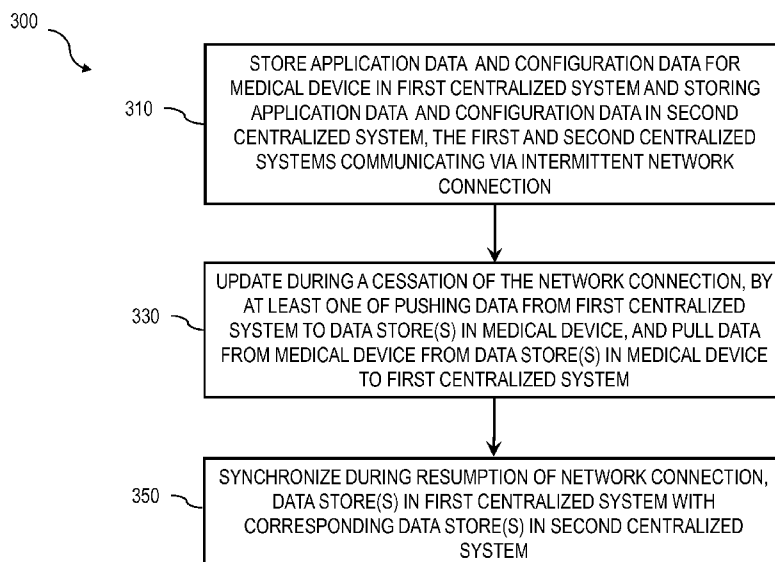

FIG. 3

(57) Abstract: Application data and configuration data is stored for a medical device in a first centralized system and also stored in a second centralized system. The first and second centralized systems communicate via a network connection that is intermittently available. During a cessation of the network connection between the first and second centralized systems, a data update may occur by at least one of: pushing data from the first centralized system to at least one data store in the medical device, and pulling data from at least one data store in the medical device to the first centralized system. During a resumption of the network connection between the first and second centralized systems, at least one data store in the first centralized system may be synchronized with a corresponding at least one data store in the second centralized system. Related apparatus, systems, techniques, articles, and computer readable media are also described.

A. CLASSIFICATION OF SUBJECT MATTER INV. G06F19/00 G06F17/30 ADD.
According to International Patent Classification (IPC) or to both national classification and IPC
B. FIELDS SEARCHED
Minimum documentation searched (classification system followed by classification symbols) G06F
Documentation searched other than minimum documentation to the extent that such documents are included in the fields searched
Electronic data base consulted during the international search (name of data base and, where practicable, search terms used) EPO-Internal, WPI Data
C. DOCUMENTS CONSIDERED TO BE RELEVANT
Category*	Citation of document, with indication, where appropriate, of the relevant passages	Relevant to claim No.

* Special categories of cited documents :
"A" document defining the general state of the art which is not considered to be of particular relevance	"T" later document published after the international filing date or priority date and not in conflict with the application but cited to understand the principle or theory underlying the invention
"E" earlier application or patent but published on or after the international filing date	"X" document of particular relevance; the claimed invention cannot be considered novel or cannot be considered to involve an inventive step when the document is taken alone
"L" document which may throw doubts on priority claim(s) or which is cited to establish the publication date of another citation or other special reason (as specified)	"Y" document of particular relevance; the claimed invention cannot be considered to involve an inventive step when the document is combined with one or more other such documents, such combination being obvious to a person skilled in the art
"O" document referring to an oral disclosure, use, exhibition or other means	"&" document member of the same patent family
"P" document published prior to the international filing date but later than the priority date claimed
