(54) Title: DEVICE COMPRISING A LIQUID LIPSTICK COMPOSITION IN THE FORM OF AN INVERSE EMULSION, AND A POROUS APPLICATION MEMBER

(57) Abstract: The present invention relates to an application device comprising: a container (3; 110); a composition for making up and/or caring for the lips (P), stored in the container, which is in the form of a liquid emulsion comprising: at least 8% by weight, relative to the total weight of the composition, of one or more non-volatile oils; at least one film-forming agent; at least 10% by weight of water relative to the total weight of the composition; an application member which has a porous application surface (14; 120). It also relates to a process for making up and/or caring for the lips, wherein the above mentioned composition is applied to the lips.

* Special categories of cited documents :

- "A" document defining the general state of the art which is not considered to be of particular relevance
- "E" earlier application or patent but published on or after the international filing date
- "L" document which may throw doubts on priority claim(s) or which is cited to establish the publication date of another citation or other special reason (as specified)
- "O" document referring to an oral disclosure, use, exhibition or other means
- "P" document published prior to the international filing date but later than the priority date claimed

"T" later document published after the international filing date or priority date and not in conflict with the application but cited to understand the principle or theory underlying the invention

"X" document of particular relevance; the claimed invention cannot be considered novel or cannot be considered to involve an inventive step when the document is taken alone

"Y" document of particular relevance; the claimed invention cannot be considered to involve an inventive step when the document is combined with one or more other such documents, such combination being obvious to a person skilled in the art

"&" document member of the same patent family
